d. If your table configuration/requirements don't fit the above descriptions, draw me a picture!

14. Description of the game: Please provide a description of up to 100 words.

- a. If you are running a board or card game, find a good online description. Google "board game geek" if you are having trouble finding one.
- b. If you are running a mini game with specific rules, point values, restrictions and exclusions, tell me. Don't assume that "everybody knows."
- c. If you are running an RPG, give your players an idea of the theme. Hack and slash, roleplay heavy, silly, horror, problem solving, etc.

All GMs who provide all in the information requested, in a manner that may be easily copied and pasted and by the deadline of 20 March, will be entered into a special thank you draw.

Thank you and see you in June!
